Subject: Questions on the 1974 US-Soviet Summit

-- What is Brezhnev's view of his present detente balance sheet?

(Were pressures for greater tangible results evident? If so, from what quarters of the Soviet consensus and on what issues?)

- -- What was the US proposal(s) on SAL that the Soviets rejected?
- -- What picture of the strategic balance, (what threats, what merits,) do the Soviets, (especially Brezhnev and Grechko), perceive?
- -- What projected US military programs worry the Soviets most?
- -- Was MBFR discussed substantively? If so, with what results?
- -- Did the Soviets present an offer on emigration? If so, what?
